You can click on any of the practice times to see more information about the practice time. To register for this practice time, enter your name in the comment box and click on Submit comment. Once the site administrator approves your submission you will see your name added to the practice the next time you login and view the calendar. The approval may take up to a day. Always book your practice times well in advance to ensure that the practice does not fill up (maximum 8) and you provide the site administrator enough time to approve your submission. When you're finished, remember to click log out just above the comment box.

Once your submission is approved, and the next time you log in and check the calendar, you will appear as a "Response" on the practice time. This means you're in! A full practice shift will have 8 "Responses" or people listed. Any less means there may still be room provided there aren't any pending submissions that are waiting for approval.

A few simple rules to follow:

1. Maximum 3 practices per week.
2. In the event that you are away for a vacation and miss a week you can make up the practices in the week(s) leading up to or following your absence. It's not mandatory. It's up to you.
